'The Greatest Show in The Weald!'

Volks Weald, the South East's largest family friendly classic VW show will take place over the weekend of July 12th–14th 2024. The show, now in its fifth year has built a reputation of being a quality, value for money weekend with something for all the family, young and old, taking place at the stunning Penshurst Place in Kent, a privately owned historic house of medieval origin. We are now taking trade bookings and for 2024 have increased the pitch size and have enhanced Partner options available designed to give your company maximum exposure. Packages are limited so please apply as soon as possible!
